

Chopin Project IV

HIS LOVES AND ROMANCES

April 24th 7:30 p.m.
 Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza
 Janet & Ray Scherr Forum Theatre

Six pianists, actress, narrator, multimedia. The Chopin Project's Mike Preddy, Ornela Ervin, Kyung Lee and Michael Glenn Williams are joined by special duo-piano guest artists Edward Francis and Mona Wu DeCesare. This one-of-a-kind concert event features Dr. Michael Williams narrating the story of Chopin's romances, Dr. Wojciech Kocyan as the voice of Chopin, with a special appearance by actress Lynette Rintoul, portraying Chopin's loves.

Tickets $25, $20 (senior) $10 (student).

Benefits the TO Philharmonic

Tickets available at the TOCAP box office
 (805) 449-ARTS (2787) or Ticketmaster (800) 745-3000

Contact tophilharmonic@gmail.com or 805.499.1994 for questions.

www.TOPhil.org

Chopin's 200th Birthday Dinner Pre-Concert Event

Please join us for social festivities before the Chopin Project, at Tuscany il Ristorante at 5:00 p.m.

A delicious three course meal with wine and gratuity included for $50 per person, to benefit the T.O. Philharmonic.

A silent auction of an original contemporary portrait painting of Chopin by Nazim.

Tuscany, 968 So. Westlake Blvd, Suite 4,
 Westlake Village, 91361

Please call for reservations: 805.494.3220
 (MB Tickets)

THOUSAND OAKS
PHILHARMONIC
 CONDUCTING DREAMS

THOUSAND OAKS
 CIVIC ARTS PLAZA

Bank of America
 PERFORMING ARTS CENTER
 SCHERR FORUM THEATRE