

Join Us in Celebrating 25 Years of Musical Excellence

Don't miss this extraordinary opportunity to be part of the Thousand Oaks Philharmonic's legacy. Your presence at our 25th Anniversary Gala will help shape the future of classical music and support the dreams of talented young musicians.

An Evening of Music, Celebration, and Impact

Join us as we mark the 25th Anniversary of the Thousand Oaks Philharmonic—a remarkable organization dedicated to championing young musicians. This extraordinary GALA is the most critical event of the year, directly funding our six-concert season and ensuring young artists in Ventura County, Calabasas, and Malibu have the opportunity to shine on a professional stage.

An Unforgettable Evening Awaits

✨ Hosted by KUSC's Rich Capparella

One of the most beloved voices in classical music, Rich brings his signature wit, charm, and deep passion for the arts to this special night.

✨ A Stellar Lineup of Performers

Enjoy a recital featuring internationally renowned cellist Andrew Janss and the brilliant pianist Ornela Ervin, alongside dazzling performances from our talented young soloists—winners of the Thousand Oaks Philharmonic Young Artist Competition.

Why TO Phil GALA Matters

The Thousand Oaks Philharmonic is the only professional orchestra in the nation solely dedicated to supporting young musicians. Your support of this event directly funds:

1 The Appassionata Program

A comprehensive educational program offering masterclasses, recitals, and concerto audition preparation.

2 Opus Concerts

The cornerstone of our season, where soloists perform with a professional orchestra.

3 The Thousand Oaks Philharmonic Young Artist Competition

A prestigious opportunity for emerging talents to compete and earn the chance to perform on a professional stage.

4 Scholarships & Educational Initiatives

Ensuring that financial barriers never prevent a promising musician from reaching their full potential.
